CHAPIN DECLARED "NOT GUILTY"

JURY IN THE CASE OUT ONLY TWENTY MINUTES.

CLOSERER WAS ON STAND

To Prove the Defendant Was Deputy Sheriff at the Time of the Shooting.

(After-Herald Special) VICTORIA, Tex., Dec. 14.—The Chapin case was given to the jury at 9:30 p.m., and the men returned a verdict of "Not guilty" in twenty minutes.

Story of Day.
(By the Associated Press) VICTORIA, Tex., Dec. 14.—After examining but two witnesses this morning, both the state and defense lawyers closed in the case of D. B.
Chapin, charged with killing Oscar J.
Desautels. The whole trial was concerned in argument, four and a half hours being allowed each side. The case was given to the jury at tonight's session.

The sister's case was opened by S. G.
Taylor, attorney for Chapin from San Antonio. The defense followed with arguments by J. V. Vandenburg, W.
C. Linden, Ben W. Elly and Charles H. At the night session District Attorney Guy Mitchell closed for the state.

The court's charge emphasized marital misconduct and the law of self-defense.

John Closter, for twenty-one years sheriff of Jim Hogg county, was put on the stand by the defense to testify that Chapin at the time of the killing was a deputy sheriff, and thus one of the state.

The court's charge emphasized marital misconduct and the law of self-defense.

Gus Maesmann, formerly of San Antonio, now of Nashville, Tennessee, was put on the stand by the state to testify concerning an alleged meeting with Closter on the day of the killing, but the testimony was ruled inadmissible.

Judge Green cautioned the audience to observe the strictest propriety during the arguments, and that any manifestations of approval or disapproval would render the manifestations void to a rule of impropriety.

After considerable debate the material was referred to the committee with the understanding that a report would be made Monday.

Attitude of Russia.

(By the Associated Press) ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 14.—The Jewish passport question has exac-ceriated only slight public interest. Good relations with the United States are duly appreciated, but it is pointed out that Russia and Germany waged a terrible war in the years during which they remained on good terms politically. The government does great peril in the estimation in discriminating of Jews to Russia. It is felt that Russia will be willing to amend conditions in practice under certain circumstances, but not to yield on principle. These it is declared are the representative views of the government and other circles.

In a comprehensive review of the antitrust prosecutions, the attorney general shows that the 17 anti-trust civil suits pending at the beginning of the last fiscal year were augmented by 6 additional actions, while the 11 criminal prosecutions under the same statute were increased by 22 more prosecutions during the fiscal year.

Eight civil suits and a similar number of criminal trials were brought to conclusion during the year.
In favor of the civil prosecutions judgments were rendered in favor of the United States, while three were lost and one was dismissed. Four convictions were re-sured under the criminal clause of statute during the year and four cases were either quashed or discontinued.

Alleged Revistas Arrested.

(By the Associated Press)
LAREDO, Texas, Dec. 14.—General Garcia, Faustino Garcia, Manuel Soto and Pedro Sanchez, alleged Revistas, were arrested today, and charged with violations of the neutral laws. They gave bond for their appearance at a hearing in Brownsville.

Committee Orders Stricken From Record All Testimony of Lawyer.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 14.—Senator Lorimer's defense received a temporary setback today. Counsel for Lorimer had announced it expected to prove the corruption of the charges against the senator were inspired by the International Harvester Company because it believed Lorimer was connected with a legal fight in Chicago to increase the company's taxes. The committee investigating Lorimer's election today admitted criticism from the record attestimony concerning the tax fight given by Maxwell Edgar, a Chicago lawyer, who created a sensation Saturday by testifying he received from Clarence Barrow an offer of $10,000 which he would drop the tax fight against the Harvester company.

Chairman Dillingham ruled Ed-gar's testimony could not be received unless Lorimer's counsel could connect it with proof that the Harvester officials believed Lorimer was interested in the fight against them. The defense promised to develop such testimony tomorrow.

For International Peace.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 14.—The second trial of Dr. D. Clark Hyde on the charge of murdering Colonel Thomas H. Swope, ended in a mistrial today. Harry W. Waldron, the juror, who escaped from the jury room Monday, returned to court today, but Judge Porterfield held him mentally incompetent and all the jury was discharged.

Hyde's trial was set for Jan.
2. It is generally understood the state will ask for a continuance at that time. The defense is downcast over the sudden ending of the trial.
They regarded the jury as favorable to the cause of Hyde.

DYNAMITE PROBE GROWS SENSATIONAL.

Bookkeeper of Bridge Workers Is Questioned by Attorney.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 14.—As a direct lead into the heart of the alleged dynamite conspiracy, District Attorney Charles W. Miller, while the Federal grand jury held its initial hearing in the case today, took up the question as to who furnished the money for the purchasing and carrying about the country explosives by which more than 100 structures were blown up.

Mrs. Andrew J. Bull, a former bookkeeper of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers who was familiar with receipts of disbursements was closely questioned by Miller, while the stun and check books and accounting records were taken into the grand jury room.

Orrie McManigal in his confession said he received about $200 for each job, and when he complained that part of the money was being held back, James B. McNamara admitted saying John J. would "fix it up."

This attracted attention in connection with Mrs. Bull's visit to the district attorney.

NATIONAL LEAGUE TABLES AMERICAN RESOLUTION

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—The National league today tabled the American league's resolution which in effect broke off relations between the two leagues.

President Lynch announced it was not even seriously considered. The resolutions adopted, called upon the cities of the National league circuit to make ticket scalping punishable by a fine and imprisonment and offering a reward of $100 for the conviction of persons gambling on the game.

President Lynch was given power to deal with the request of the three principal minor leagues for higher classification.

A provision was made over the beginning of next season or about April 15, and to close up or about October 6.

The management will present the
